Frequently Asked Questions – SmartTraveller (Single & Annual Plan)

1. Can I call from overseas to effect a travel policy if I have overlooked to purchase one prior to my departure?

No, all travel policies must be taken before commencement of trip.

2. If I already have a personal accident policy, is it necessary to buy a travel policy?

A travel policy covers many other risks which are not covered on any other standard policies, such as baggage delay, travel delay, misconnection, trip curtailment etc. Thus, it is advisable to purchase a travel policy that caters specifically to your travel needs.

3. How do you define a family?

For Single Trip policies

'Family' means any 1 or 2 adults travelling with any number of children and each legally related to either of the insured adults. The family must travel and return together.

Child / Children refers to your child who is unmarried and unemployed under the age of 18 years old or up to 25 years old who is studying full-time in a recognized institution of higher learning.

For Annual policies

'Family' means you, your spouse and accompanying children under the age of 18 years old or up to 25 years old if they are studying full-time in a recognized institution of higher learning.

4. What's the maximum number of days allowed under single trip travel policy?

A single trip policy covers up to a maximum of 182 days each trip. Traveller must commence trip from Singapore.

5. What's the maximum number of days allowed per trip for the annual plan travel policy?

An annual plan policy allows unlimited number of trips during the Period of insurance but the maximum number of days allowed per trip is 92 days. Traveller must commence trip from Singapore.

6. Is terrorism covered?

Our SmartTraveller policy has been enhanced to cover losses due to terrorism; be it nuclear, chemical or biological. However, direct participation in terrorist acts will not be covered.
